

Please take note that Indiana Consumers requested and was granted the right not to have unwanted telephone marketing calls interrupting our lives. The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that you currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call you as often as they want. Over an eighteen month period, that could translate to over 800,000,000 more unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents. Would you like for your evenings, meals, personal lives, and those of your children to be continually interrupted once again with these unwanted calls? Please DO NOT allow the CBA TO TAKE THIS FREEDOM AWAY FROM US. AFTER ALL, IS SUPPOSED TO BE A FREE COUNTRY, FREE FROM UNWANTED CALLS AND PESTERING BUSINESSES AND TELEMARKETERS! NOT FREE FOR THEM TO HARASS US!
